REASONS FOR JUDGEMENT

LE GRANGE AJ:

- [1] This Court dismissed an application for leave to appeal ex tempore with costs on 26 March 2024.
- [2] On 2 April 2024 a request was made for reasons, which is provided herewith as follows:
- [3] After due consideration of the application for condonation and considering that the application (and the facts surrounding the application) is not vehemently opposed, this Court found it to be in the interest of justice to grant condonation. Due to the applicant seeking an indulgence, this Court made an order that costs be paid by it.
- [4] After due consideration of the application for leave to appeal and the grounds and basis thereof this Court found that there are no new or novel points raised which was not already raised in the application for rescission.
- [5] This Court has extensively dealt with, and provided reasons for, each and every point raised, in its judgement that was delivered on 15 June 2023 and persist therewith, as if specifically dealt with herein.
- [6] Considering the above this Court is of the view that an appeal would have no reasonable prospect of success on these points, nor are there compelling reasons why an appeal should be heard.
- [7] Considering the fact that the scale of costs has been agreed upon this Court granted costs accordingly.
- [8] In the result the following order was made:

1. The application for condonation is granted, the applicant to pay the costs thereof.
2. The application for leave to appeal is dismissed with costs on an attorney-and-client scale.
