In the matter between:

DEON PAUL MENGE

Applicant

and

EWERTINA JOHANNA MENGE

Respondent

HEARD ON: 22 MARCH 2018

JUDGMENT BY: BENADE, AJ

DELIVERED ON: 29 MARCH 2018

ORDER RULE 43(6)

- [1] Having perused the papers and hearing argument by counsel for the parties the following orders are issued:

1. The application is dismissed for lack of materially changed circumstances, properly so, as contemplated in Rule 43(6).
2. The application from the bar for postponement to 19 April 2018 is also dismissed.
3. The parties are still free to approach the court when the Family Advocate report becomes available, as implicitly envisaged in paragraph 3 of the 14 September 2017 Rule 43 order.
 - 3.1 The family advocate is urged to expedite the aforementioned report which was due on 20 October 2017. The applicant is requested to make this order and the application papers available to the Family Advocate.
4. Each party to carry its own costs (as a mark of disapproval and considerable disquiet on the side of the court regarding the conduct of the parties and the position in which they place the son Paul, which led to this application).
