JUDGMENT

WRIGHT J

1. The applicants seek urgently an order that they be reinstated to certain leased premises from which the applicants run a school.
2. Ms Bronkhorst, for the respondents does not clearly state whether or not the respondents oppose the main relief. In effect, she does not oppose the re-instatement. Nor does she oppose an order that they return equipment to the second floor.
3. The answering affidavit is clear. There has been no eviction or attempted eviction. The applicants' property was moved by the respondents only because of a recent burglary which caused much damage.
4. A prayer for payment of R30 000 is not urgent. The question of costs is not urgent. The applicants are unrepresented. Costs should be reserved.

ORDER

1. The respondents are immediately to restore the applicants and their property to the second floor, 100 Main Rd, Newlands, Johannesburg.
2. Costs reserved.
