In the matter between:

ROSANN MAUREEN TANKARD

Applicant

and

OLD MUTUAL WEALTH

Respondent

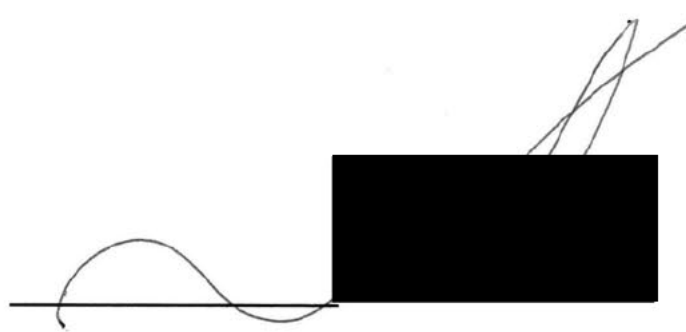

JUDGMENT

WRIGHT J

1. The alleged applicant lost her husband ten years ago, allegedly.
2. She was allegedly appointed executrix in his deceased estate about three months ago.
3. The applicant seeks urgently orders that the respondent disclose to her details of all policies held by her husband and she seeks payment of the proceeds.
4. She says, vaguely, that she needs the money otherwise she will be homeless.
5. No detail of her financial position is set out or her alleged inability to get other accommodation.
6. The answering affidavit raises a number of defences, including a defence that the wrong respondent has been cited, which I need not deal with as urgency is not proved.

ORDER

Struck off, costs reserved. -
