JUDGMENT: APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO APPEAL

(The matter was heard in open court on 1 April 2025 in the Urgent Court. The application was dismissed for lack of urgency and lack of locus standi. Written reasons for the extempore judgment were handed down on 23 April 2025. The application for leave to appeal was heard in open court on 13 June 2025 and judgment is handed down by uploading thereof onto the electronic file of the matter on CaseLines. The date of uploading onto CaseLines is deemed to be the date of the judgment).

BEFORE: HOLLAND-MUTER J:

[1] Having heard counsel for the parties and perusing the pleadings and heads of arguments uploaded onto CaseLines, and considering the provisions of Section 17(1) (a) (i) & (ii) of the Superior Court Act 10 of 2013, I am satisfied that there is no reasonable prospect of success that another court would come to another decision; of that there are some other compelling reasons why the appeal should be heard.

[2] There is nothing further to add to the ex tempore judgment and the written reasons furnished.

[3] The application for leave to appeal is dismissed with costs, costs to be on Scale B as contained in Rule 69(7) of the Uniform Rules of Court.
