JUDGMENT: APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO APPEAL

MARQUES, AJ

[1] This is an application for leave to appeal brought by the Applicant against the whole judgment and order of this Court issued on 22 May 2025 in terms of which the Applicant was ordered to:

1.1 The Applicant was an employee of the First Respondent from 1 February 2019 to September 2020.

1.2 The First Respondent's non-payment of the Applicant's salary is a breach of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, No 75 of 1997.

1.3 The First Respondent is ordered to make payment to the Applicant of the unpaid salary amounting to R322 326.00 within 10 court days of the date of this order.

1.4 The First Respondent is to pay interest on the aforesaid amount at the prescribed rate of interest calculated from 1 April 2019 to date of payment in accordance with this order.

1.5 No order as to costs.

[2] Since the notice of application for leave to appeal was delivered on 6 June 2025, no further submissions have been filed in terms of Rule 67(5).

[3] I have considered the grounds upon which leave to appeal is sought and reflected on the judgment. I am not persuaded that the appeal has reasonable prospects of success or that another court will come to a different conclusion. All of the issues set out in the notice of application for leave to appeal were considered in the hearing. The application stands to be dismissed.

[4] In the premises the following order is made:

Order

1. The Application for leave to appeal is dismissed.

B. Marques
Acting Judge of the Labour Court of South Africa
